Ross Stores Donates $850,000 for Disaster Relief and Recovery in response to California Wildfires

January 13, 2025

DUBLIN, Calif., Jan. 13, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Ross Stores, Inc. (Nasdaq: ROST) announced today that the Company has pledged $850,000 of donations to local and national organizations, including the American Red Cross, United Way of Greater Los Angeles, and the Los Angeles Regional Food Bank, providing disaster relief and recovery efforts associated with the devastating California wildfires. These funds will help provide shelter, food, emergency supplies, and rebuilding services for people affected by this ongoing disaster.

Barbara Rentler, Chief Executive Officer, commented, "We are committed to supporting our local communities, especially during times of need. We launched our off-price business in California about 43 years ago, and today it remains an important market for us with almost 500 Ross Dress for Less and dd's DISCOUNTS stores. In addition, we operate one of our major buying offices in Los Angeles, so this unfathomable disaster hits close to home. Our heartfelt thoughts and condolences go out to those who have suffered untold losses from these devastating wildfires."

The Company is also raising additional funds specifically to help those affected by the 2025 California wildfires by accepting customer donations to the Red Cross from January 16th through January 26th at the store registers of its 139 Ross Dress for Less and 49 dd's DISCOUNTS locations across Southern California. Individuals can also choose to make secure online donations to the Red Cross at www.redcross.org.
